

The Sandoval County Seed Library

(a Sandoval County Master Gardeners' project)

Seed Saving Workshops

August-September, 2018

FREE and OPEN to the PUBLIC

DATE	TOPIC	DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER	TIME	LOCATION
Sat Aug 18	Seed Saving: Creating a Seed Legacy	Learn how to maintain varietal purity, use isolation techniques, select seed from your healthiest plants, and properly clean and store seed. Help create regionally adapted seed, sustainability and maintain biodiversity. Share your seeds with others for the generations to come. Free & open to the public	Amy Upperman SCMG	11:00 am to 12:30 pm	Loma Colorado Main Library 755 Loma Colorado Drive NE, Rio Rancho, NM 87124 Enquiries: 505-891-5013
Tues Sept 11	Seed Saving: Creating a Seed Legacy	Learn how to maintain varietal purity, use isolation techniques, select seed from your healthiest plants, and properly clean and store seed. Help create regionally adapted seed, sustainability and maintain biodiversity. Share your seeds with others for the generations to come. Free & open to the public	Amy Upperman SCMG	6:00 pm to 7:30 pm	Esther Bone Memorial Library 950 Pinetree Road SE, Rio Rancho, NM 87124 Enquiries: 505-891-5012